President's Message

Anthony Goodson, Jr. | SERC-NAHRO President

Dear SERC-NAHRO Members,

Happy New Year and welcome to 2025!

As we step into this new year, I want to take a moment to reflect on the incredible work you do and the impact we collectively have on the communities we serve. Across the Southeast, SERC-NAHRO members now serve over 850,000 families, including hundreds of thousands of children. These numbers are far more than statistics—they represent lives changed, communities built, and futures secured through your dedication.

Total Households Served
Alabama	80,900
Florida	180,600
Georgia	118,000
Kentucky	73,800
Mississippi	51,400
North Carolina	111,400
South Carolina	56,400
Tennessee	94,300
Virginia	91,500
West Virginia	30,800
Grand Total:	889,100

This past year has shown us the resilience and commitment of our housing professionals. Despite funding uncertainties, regulatory challenges, and the ever-growing demand for affordable housing, you continue to rise to the occasion. Your work transforms lives by providing not just housing, but hope and opportunity for those who rely on us most.

As we look to 2025, our mission remains clear: to ensure that everyone in our communities has access to safe, affordable, and quality housing. This mission cannot be achieved without robust funding. The Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program remains one of our most effective tools in addressing the housing needs of low-income families, yet current funding projections for FY 2025 fall short of the levels needed to sustain this critical program. At the same time, the $90 billion capital backlog in public housing reminds us of the pressing need to modernize and maintain the homes that so many depend on.

Share your stories of success, demonstrate the life-changing impact of our programs, and make sure our collective voice is heard. Advocacy is one of our most powerful tools. Together, we can make a difference for the families and communities who depend on us.

Your passion, resilience, and tireless dedication are the foundation of SERC-NAHRO's success. You are more than housing professionals—you are community builders, problem-solvers, and advocates for a better future.

Because of you, children have a safe place to call home, parents have the stability to build brighter futures, and communities have the strength to grow and thrive.

I look forward to working with all of you to achieve even greater success in the year ahead.

Anthony Goodson, Jr.,
SERC-NAHRO President

NAHRO 2024 Advocate of the Year | NAHRO 2023 Outstanding Professional of the Year

Greetings, SERC Nation!

I hope Montgomery, Alabama was as good to you as it was to me. The SERC-NAHRO Fall Workshop held on November 10-12, 2024, “Paths & Spaces: Navigating the Housing Journey,” was truly game-changing! Activities included a strategic retreat and planning session led by Greensboro CEO James Cox, a SERC College Game Day hosted by the Emerging Leaders Committee, ‘move making’ sessions, ‘power playing’ speakers, ‘dice rolling’ discussions, ‘victory lap’ collaborations, a riverboat cruise, and more.

FSS Program Makes Homeownership a Reality

- Prichard Housing Authority

PHA, along with their newly appointed CEO, Kimberly Levingston, are proud to announce that two of their FSS Program graduates have purchased new homes!

Their first new homeowner is Ms. Keaira O’Cain, a single mother who experienced homelessness prior to being accepted into the PHA HCV Program. “When I was first approached by my FSS worker about purchasing a home with my voucher, I was like I can’t do that. Well, let me tell you, it is definitely possible,” said O’Cain.

Ms. O’Cain shared that the journey was challenging, but because of the assistance and guidance from PHA, she made it. “This blessing has changed my life. Every step, no matter how small, brings you closer to your goal. Remember, the joy and pride that comes with unlocking the door to your first home is incomparable. So, stay focused, be patient, and keep pushing forward. Your homebuying success story is waiting to be written.”

Ms. Elisa Morrisette is another new homeowner thanks to PHA. Ms. Morrisette wanted a yard and front porch to sit on and watch her grandkids play.

Ms. Morrisette heard about the Homeownership Program and decided to give it a try. After a year of disciplined saving and using the resources available through the classes, Ms. Morrisette purchased her first home. “When I signed the papers, it felt surreal. I never thought I’d get here, but with the right approach, I made it happen.”

Because of outstanding programs and the work of dedicated agency staff, homeownership can become a reality. “I hope that these success stories inspire not only other affordable housing residents, but housing agencies to look into how they can help their residents achieve homeownership.” said PHA CEO Kimberly Levingston.

For more information on PHA or their Homeownership Program, please visit their website at PrichardHousing.com.

Jobs Plus Grant Awarded

- Selma Housing Authority

The US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has awarded Selma Housing Authority (SHA) a Jobs Plus grant in the amount of $2.3 million dollars. This grant will allow the agency to serve residents in George Washington Carver and Felix Heights to get assistance so that they can enter the workforce.

“Well, I think it’s a game changer,” said SHA President/CEO Mr. Kennard Randolph. The SHA is elated to be 1 of 14 grant recipients. Through the Jobs Plus grant, Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) develop locally based, job-driven approaches to increase earnings and advance employment outcomes for public housing residents.

Jennifer Riley Collins, regional administrator for the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, said, “The state of Alabama received $3.9 million, and of that $3.9 million, I am happy to say that part of that money is coming right here to Selma today. I am honored to be here today to present a check to the Selma Housing Authority for $2.3 million.”

Congratulations, Selma Housing Authority, for receiving this outstanding grant. We look forward to seeing the transformative impact of this program on your community. For more information on Selma Housing Authority, please visit their website at SelmaHousing.com.

Renovations Bring Renewed Spirit

- Sheffield Housing Authority

The Sheffield Housing Authority spent much of 2024 renovating and revitalizing its communities. The renovations first tackled the unit’s curb appeal, bringing new siding and stonework to the exterior as well as new windows, shutters, and doors. Finally, a new exterior color palette for the siding and roofing greatly modernized the visual look of the units.

The new modernized color palette was continued inside the units while preserving and highlighting charming details like the original herringbone tile in the bathrooms.

Overall, these renovations brought a renewed energy and positive spirit within the communities! To celebrate the first round of renovations being completed, the Sheffield Housing Authority held a ribbon cutting earlier this year.

To keep up to date with Sheffield Housing Authority, please visit them on Facebook!

A Year of Golden Memories

- St. Petersburg Housing Authority

It certainly was a year to remember at St. Petersburg Housing Authority. In celebration of their momentous year, SPHA completed a special project to share with their senior residents.

SPHA created a yearbook for their senior residents at The Legacy at Jordan Park, highlighting the wonderful activities and events they've enjoyed over the past year. The yearbook includes photos of "Students" (community residents), class superlatives, space for autographs, and coverage of community events, such as the Senior Prom.

To learn more about the Legacy at Jordan Park, visit StPeteHA.org/Jordan-Park-Redevelopment. For more information on St. Petersburg Housing Authority, please visit their website at StPeteHA.org.

A Lifetime of Service Remembered

- Housing Authority of Bowling Green

It is with a heavy heart that we share the passing of our dear friend and esteemed colleague, Abraham A. Williams Jr., who left us on Sunday, October 13, 2024. Abraham was not only a dedicated servant leader but also an unwavering source of inspiration to us all.

In remembering Abraham Williams, SERC-NAHRO President Anthony Goodson said, "His commitment to our mission and his genuine compassion for the communities we serve have left an indelible mark on SERC-NAHRO.

Abraham's vision and leadership guided many initiatives that transformed lives and fostered hope in countless individuals. He embodied the spirit of service and made it his life's work to uplift others, reminding us all of the profound impact one person can have.

As we remember Abraham, let us draw strength from the words of Scripture: "Well done, good and faithful servant." — Matthew 25:23

Partnerships Make Halloween a Treat

- Mississippi Regional Housing Authority 5

The Mississippi Regional Housing Authority 5 had a frightfully sweet Halloween. Their annual Treat Street event gives residents from across their region the opportunity to come visit with agency staff and partners while participating in fun fall activities.

The annual event is hosted at MRHAV's main office, and partners from throughout their service area are invited to participate in the festivities. Partners are able to set up booths or tents and provide candy to trick-or-treaters while also providing additional information about their services.

MRHAV would like to extend their thanks to the Newton Chamber of Commerce for their assistance in gathering local businesses to participate in Treat Street. The event was well attended, and MRHAV is already making plans for next year! To learn more about MRHAV, please visit their website at MRHAV.org.

A Season of Service

- Water Valley Housing Authority

The Water Valley Housing Authority (WVHA) has truly shared a season of service with their residents.

During the Thanksgiving season, WVHA provided either a turkey or a ham to all of their affordable housing residents to help round out their Thanksgiving meal. Residents were able to pick up their choice of protein from the senior community center during a designated pickup window. Executive Director Sharon White was reminded of the Thanksgiving quote, "How we use our blessings is the true measure of our Thanksgiving." Residents were so grateful to have a major part of their holiday meals provided by the agency, and it truly made a difference to many families in the scope of how they celebrated.

Additionally, in partnership with the Mississippi State Extension Service, WVHA hosts monthly classes to teach residents new skills. Class topics vary but typically focus on some aspect of homemaking. Previous classes included baking sourdough bread from scratch and making a gift in a jar to share during the holiday season. These classes have been well attended by a variety of residents, both young and old, eager to learn these new skills.

By thinking outside the box and working with trusted community partners, Water Valley Housing Authority has been able to provide their residents with wonderful opportunities and experiences as they enter the new year. Grand Prize Winner in NAHRO “What Home Means to Me” Poster Contest

- Tennessee Valley Housing Services

At the 2024 NAHRO National Conference and Exhibition in Orlando, the Housing America Advisory Committee announced the 12 winners of the 2024-2025 “What Home Means to Me” Poster Contest.

Judged by a panel of housing leaders (Ashley Northcutt of Women’s Affordable Housing Network, Emily Cadik of the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Coalition, and Lisa Lee of the National Public Housing Museum), the national poster contest is the culmination of numerous poster contests held by public housing authorities, states, and regions all across the United States. Each of the eight NAHRO regions submits three posters (one from each age group) for consideration.

The 2024-25 grand prize winner is Adriana Gomez, age 11, from Tennessee Valley Housing Services in Morristown, TN. Her poster will be featured on NAHRO’s 2025 What Home Means to Me calendar.

“We are extremely proud of Adriana’s accomplishment. The children that live in our properties are bright and talented. NAHRO’s “What Home Means to Me” Poster Contest is one way that these talented kids can receive the recognition and encouragement they deserve,” said Sean Gilbert, TVHS Executive Director.

The grand prize winner receives an iPad (color of their choice) and a trip to Washington, DC, for the student and a family member to be recognized at the 2025 NAHRO Washington Conference.

Adriana said in her narrative that “Home is a place where I can make good memories with my family. Home is a peaceful place where I know that I can be myself.”

2025 What Home Means to Me calendars are currently in production and will be available in December. Calendars will also be available for purchase online soon at www.nahro.org.

Congratulations, Adriana, on your achievement. We are proud to have you represent the SERC-NAHRO Region. For more information on Tennessee Valley Housing Services, please visit their website at TVHSTN.org.

The Virginia Governor’s Housing Conference (VAGHC) connects Virginia’s affordable housing providers with funders, lenders, realtors, nonprofits, public officials, and resources to improve housing in Virginia’s communities. The conference provides stimulating and thought-provoking information and educational sessions led by experts in housing, finance, and development.

Each year, one of the conference’s highlights is the VAGHC Housing Awards Luncheon, which recognizes innovative, effective efforts that address our housing needs. The Innovation in Housing Award recognizes an innovation in housing that promotes affordable housing options.

VAHCDO was recognized for their utilization of their Virginia Housing Community Engagement Grant. VAHCDO contracted with Loud & Clear Marketing to create a multimedia toolkit for its members, including housing development authorities and other housing professionals. Designed to increase private landlord participation in affordable housing programs like Housing Choice Voucher (HCV), VAHCDO member organizations can use the toolkit to assist in their education and outreach efforts to encourage private landlord participation within their communities.

DEBIT CARDS

TIRED OF WRITING UTILITY ALLOWANCE CHECKS ?

Why do PHAs from across the US use the Uflex Utility Allowance Debit Card?

Cost Effective Disbursements

Streamline the disbursement, reduce administrative overhead and operational costs associated with traditional payment methods like checks.

Digital First

Uflex can provide Virtual Cards which deliver immediate access to a card for use by recipients with smartphones.

Financial Inclusion

Reach and support individuals who may not have access to a bank account.

Transparency

Facilitate transparent tracking of funds from PHA to recipient, no more "I didn't receive my utility allowance check."

Lower Fraud Risk

Lowers fraud risk associated with PHA checks being "washed" and fraudulently copied for unauthorized use.
